

Starbucks coffee

Price:

Decaf Pike Place® Roast

Price: 17.95

The bold flavour and smooth finish you love, but, you know, decaffeinated. The very first day Seattle's Pike Place Market opened in the summer of 1907, hundreds of eager customers snatched up all the farm-fresh goods in a matter of hours. By noon, there wasn't a scrap of produce left as the farmers' wagons began to roll out. When we set up shop here in 1971, we knew our success would depend on how well we could cater to this insatiable appetite for freshness. Naturally we took up this challenge with gusto, offering superlative brews day in and day out. Pike Place® Roast is as much a celebration of our proud history at the market as a heartfelt toast to our discerning customers. We created this blend to meet a wide range of tastes. Whether you prefer it straight up or complemented with cream and sugar, we promise a bold, satisfying cup that's rich in flavor yet balanced enough to enjoy every day. Pike Place is a trademark or registered trademark of The Pike Place Market PDA, used under license. *It's tough to tell the difference between a Starbucks caffeinated and decaffeinated coffee. Our decaf versions deliver the same great taste and quality, just with less caffeine. It is a cup for those who know what they want, and more to the point, what

Colombia Nariño

Price: 9.95

For us, the heart of Colombian coffee sits always in the mountains of Nariño. Here coffee grows at elevations higher than 6,500 feet, where warm tropical days and cool nights let the beans develop slowly. Complex and elegant, medium-bodied with a juicy acidity, herbal notes and a walnut-like finish, it is a unique collection of flavours. And one found only in this special place.

Is your coffee in the grocery stores the same as the coffee in your stores? Absolutely—only the packaging is different. This is so you can easily find your Starbucks favorites in the coffee aisle. Body: Medium Acidity: Medium Processing Method: Washed

Caffè Verona®

Price: 16.95

If Cupid used coffee instead of arrows, this blend might well be his weapon of choice. Caffè Verona® is a seductive blend of beans from Latin America and Indonesia, with a gentle touch of Italian Roast lending depth, soul and sweetness. Because this delectable combination pairs so very well with chocolate, it has become a Valentine's Day favourite – and the coffee we most associate with romance. Bella, Bella! P.S.: Literature lovers out there will recognize Verona as the city where Shakespeare set Romeo and Juliet. Although the play ends in tragedy, we'd like you to know that every cup of this coffee has a happy ending.

Starbucks

Price:

Breakfast Blend

Price: 15.95

There are morning people. And there are others who decidedly are not morning people. Although the gulf between these two types is huge, we think all can agree that our Breakfast Blend is one fine coffee. It's a gathering of Latin American beans chosen for their sparkling flavour. Kind of like orange juice and the way it dances on your tongue, this coffee has a get-up-and-going charge to it. But we roast these beans a little lighter than we usually do. So the flavour is lighter-bodied and milder – just a nudge really. What you get is a nice, clean taste with a sunny disposition. Whether your cup is half full or half empty, it's all good.

Price:

Starbucks

Starbucks

4

Price:

