Custom Beats Studio Buds	BEATSST UDIO	"We are excited to offer the Custom Beats by Dre Beats Studio Buds as part of our QuickShip program! Surrounds you in sound: Beats Studio Buds support spatial audio for immersive music, movies, and games – delivering a surround sound experience that you can take with you anywhere. Control the noise: Active Noise Cancelling (ANC) continuously blocks unwanted external noise. Switch to Transparency mode when you need to hear the world around you. External-facing microphones allow the sounds of your surroundings back in for a natural listening experience. Simple one-touch pairing: Beats Studio Buds feature simple one-touch pairing for Apple and Android devices and easily connect via Bluetooth. Compatible with iOS and Android: With the Beats app for Android, you™ get features like built-in controls, device status (i.e. battery levels), and firmware updates.	218.13	50

		firmware updates. These features are built in to iOS with no app required, and Beats Studio Buds automatically pair across your Apple ecosystem for one-touch pairing with all your devices. iPhone users can also activate Siri hands-free just by saying “Hey Siri”. On-device controls: On-ear controls allow you to manage calls and control music. You™ll also be able to customize the “Press and Hold” function on one or both buds to manage listening modes, enable voice assistant, or control volume. Keep the connection: Dual-beam forming microphones target your voice and filter out wind and external noise for high-quality call performance and elevated voice clarity. Power throughout your day: These earbuds have up to 8 hours of listening time with two additional charges provided by its pocket-sized charging case. If you need a little extra
