TAMARA ANDJUS

“ Be inspired, be bold and enjoy the journey ! “
Tamara Andjus

Meet the Artist

Tamara Andjus, born in 1982, lives and works in Zurich, Switzerland, as a professional artist. She won prestigious awards in Art and had participated in numerous exhibitions all over the world. She studied Law at the University where she got her Bachelors and Masters degree. Throughout her time working in Law, her passion for painting and creating beautiful, colorful, live emotions never disappeared.

While Andjus's work is rooted in contemporary realism, it also draws inspiration from impressionism and romanticism. Despite these influences, her work maintains a distinctive quality, characterized by a gentle blending of forms and colors. Her ability to merge traditional techniques with a modern sensibility speaks to her creative versatility and innovative approach to art.

Tamara Andjus is a remarkable artist whose work stands out for its technical excellence, aesthetic sensitivity, and emotional depth. Her ability to create compelling visual stories through color, light, and texture demonstrates not only her artistic skill but also her profound understanding of the subjects she portrays. Andjus's contributions to contemporary art are significant, offering viewers a rich and engaging experience that resonates on both a visual and emotional level.

She is represented by many prestigious galleries like Artsy, Singulart, Artmajeur, Artboxy, Saatchi, Artio, Musa internationale, Steiner Gallery and many more.
